THE HOLY EUCHARIST

*Kneeling is preferred in this penitential season; however, all directions about standing and kneeling are for those who are able.
Masks are currently optional.*

THE PRELUDE

Savior, When in Dust to You

ARR. PAUL MANZ

THE PENITENTIAL ORDER

Please stand.

THE OPENING HYMN – 441

In the cross of Christ I glory

RATHBUN

WELCOME AND OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider      Blessed be God who forgives all our sins.
People        God's mercy endures forever.

HOLY SCRIPTURE

The Presider may say one of the following:

Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these."
Mark 12:29-31

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
1 John 1:8,9

Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 4:14 16

CONFESSION OF SIN AND ABSOLUTION

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people may kneel or stand. A moment of silence may be kept.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Presider stands and says:

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD

KYRIE – HYMNAL S 91 spoken as shown below, or sung at 10:45 a.m (see hymnal)

WILLAN

Presider Lord have mercy upon us.

People Christ have mercy upon us.

Presider Lord have mercy upon us.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Presider Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated

THE FIRST LESSON

ISAIAH 43:16-21

Reader A reading from the book of Isaiah.

Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

Reader The Word of the Lord. or Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

THE RESPONSE

In convertendo

PSALM 126

The Psalm may be read in unison, or responsively by whole or half verse.

- 1 When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, *
then were we like those who dream.
- 2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with shouts of joy.
- 3 Then they said among the nations, *
"The LORD has done great things for them."
- 4 The LORD has done great things for us, *
and we are glad indeed.
- 5 Restore our fortunes, O LORD, *
like the watercourses of the Negev.
- 6 Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.
- 7 Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

THE SECOND LESSON

PHILIPPIANS 3:4B-14

Reader A reading from St. Paul's letter to the Philippians.

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands."' So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe--the best one--and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate. "Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.' Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!' Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.'"

After the Gospel, the Reader says:

Reader            The Gospel of our Savior.
People            Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

THE REV. DILLON GREEN, CURATE

The preacher indicates when all may be seated.

After a moment of silent reflection, together we stand to say The Nicene Creed.

THE NICENE CREED

All                We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father,
 who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.
 Amen.

Please kneel or remain standing.

Presider God be with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider It is truly right to glorify you, Holy One,
and to give you thanks;
for you alone are God, living and true,
dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.
Fountain of life and source of all goodness,
you made all things and fill them with your blessing;
you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.
Countless throngs of angels stand before you
to serve you night and day;
and, beholding the glory of your presence,
they offer you unceasing praise.
Joining with them,
and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim
you, and glorify your name, as we sing:

SANCTUS – HYMNAL S 114 spoken as shown below, or sung at 10:45 a.m (see hymnal)

WILLAN

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Almighty God, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption.
Recalling Christ’s death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming Christ’s resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting Christ’s coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

All        We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

Presider    God our Creator, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us,
and upon these gifts,
sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people,
the bread of life and the cup of salvation,
the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with matriarchs, patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, with St. James and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past.
We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your son Jesus Christ our Savior.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
for ever and ever. AMEN.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Presider    And now as our savior Christ has offered, we are bold to say:

All        Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The People may kneel or stand.

Presider

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power.
Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love.
You formed us in your own image,
giving the whole world into our care,
so that, in obedience to you, our Creator,
we might rule and serve all your creatures.
When our disobedience took us far from you,
you did not abandon us to the power of death.

In your mercy you came to our help,
so that in seeking you we might find you.
Again and again you called us into covenant with you,
and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Holy God, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time
you sent your only Son to be our Savior.
Incarnate by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
Jesus lived as one of us, yet without sin.
To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation;
to prisoners, freedom;
to the sorrowful, joy.
To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death;
and, rising from the grave, destroyed death,
and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves,
but for Christ who died and rose for us,
you sent the Holy Spirit,
your own first gift for those who believe,
to complete his work in the world,
and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for Jesus to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world,
he loved them to the end;
at supper with them Jesus took bread,
and when he had given thanks to you,
he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine;

Palm Sunday

Holy Week starts with a surge of positive emotions on Palm Sunday as we remember Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem at Passover. The Palm Sunday service begins with a blessing of the palms. The Saturday 5:30 PM service and the 8:30 AM Sunday morning services begin in the church. The 10:45 AM service Sunday morning begins outside the red doors (or in the Guild Hall – depending on the weather). Palms are blessed and then a festive procession to the church takes place accompanied by the choir. The reading of the Passion according to Luke will be part of each service. Some are assigned special parts to read and the congregation speaks as the "Assembly" when they say: "Crucify, crucify Him!" After the Holy Eucharist, the service ends on a somber note and all depart in silence.

If you would like to sign up to take part in the dramatic reading of the passion gospel on Palm Sunday at 10:45, please sign up at the front desk. Once all roles are claimed, the sign-up sheet will be removed, so don't miss your chance.

Maundy Thursday

On Maundy Thursday the 7:00 PM service recalls Jesus' demonstration of servitude with the service of foot washing. Those who desire to take part may participate in the annual ritual of foot washing. If you decide to come forward to wash someone else's feet and then have your own feet washed, you should take off your socks and shoes at your seat and come forward barefoot. Towels will be used to dry your feet before you return to your seat. The foot washing was something Jesus did for his disciples at the Last Supper. At this special service, we remember Jesus' last meal together with his disciples and the institution of the Eucharist where he told his disciples to eat the bread and drink the wine representing his body and blood in remembrance of Him. It was at this gathering when Jesus was betrayed by Judas into the hands of soldiers. To signify the emptiness left in the hearts of his disciples when Jesus was arrested, the altar is stripped and the chancel is ultimately left standing bare. Christ has started his journey toward leaving the world. Silent meditation may continue in the church as the usually beautifully adorned altar stands empty and desolate.

Overnight Vigil

The Thursday night vigil (also called the overnight watch) is held in the chapel where you are invited to offer prayer and silent meditation through the night. On the night before he died, our Lord Jesus Christ asked his disciples to stay awake and pray with him. This is the opportunity for us to respond to his request. Sign up on the sign-up sheet at the front desk for the hour(s) you would like to keep company with our Lord in the chapel. The vigil begins at approximately 8:30 PM (immediately following the Maundy Thursday service) and lasts until the noon service begins on Good Friday. At least one person needs to sign up to be present for each hour. Doors to the church will be locked through the night; however, someone will be posted inside the red (front) doors at all times to grant entrance and ensure a safe exit.

A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

Lord of all the earth, be present with the people of Ukraine.

Grant that wise and peaceable counsels may yet prevail. We pray for all who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit will comfort them. And we pray for those who have influence over tomorrow, that your Spirit will convict them and call them into compassion.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

WHOEVER YOU ARE AND WHEREVER YOU FIND YOURSELF ON YOUR JOURNEY OF FAITH, YOU ARE WELCOME HERE.

You will hear these words every week at St. James as we invite you to join us for the Word and Sacraments that are God's gifts to all. It does not matter who you are, what you look like, what you have done in the past, or who you love. God's grace is not petty; it is not earned. It is radical and universal. We at St. James seek to mirror God's healing love by making this community a safe place for skeptics, doubters, seekers, those who have been wounded by the church, those who have never darkened its doors, those who have wandered, as well as new believers and those who have never left. As a diverse community we have discovered in God a oneness greater than our differences.

We have come to know that our variety reflects the divine comprehensiveness of God. Engaging God is a lifelong process. Wherever you find yourself on your journey of faith, we believe God invites you to keep traveling. In some subtle or profound way, the Spirit of God drew you here. Our hearts are open to God and to you.
