“A Song of the Wilderness”

ISAIAH 35:1-7,10

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, *
the desert shall rejoice and blossom;

It shall blossom abundantly, *
and rejoice with joy and singing.

They shall see the glory of the Lord, *
the majesty of our God.

Strengthen the weary hands, *
and make firm the feeble knees.

Say to the anxious, “Be strong, do not fear! *
Here is your God, coming with judgment to save you.”

Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, *
and the ears of the deaf be unstopped.

Then shall the lame leap like a deer, *
and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy.

For waters shall break forth in the wilderness *
and streams in the desert;

The burning sand shall become a pool *
and the thirsty ground, springs of water.

The ransomed of God shall return with singing, *
with everlasting joy upon their heads.

Joy and gladness shall be theirs, *
and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

THE WORD OF GOD

PROPER 15

THE FIRST LESSON

GENESIS 45:1-15

Reader A reading from the book of Genesis.

Joseph could no longer control himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, "Send everyone away from me." So no one stayed with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers. And he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard it. Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence. Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Come closer to me." And they came closer. He said, "I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors. So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt. Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, "Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay. You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. I will provide for you there—since there are five more years of famine to come—so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty." And now your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my own mouth that speaks to you. You must tell my father how greatly I am honored in Egypt, and all that you have seen. Hurry and bring my father down here." Then he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, while Benjamin wept upon his neck. And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

Summer Variety

In June, July, and August we will make our worship full of life through the use of a variety of songs of praise instead of The Gloria. Each Sunday during this time a different version of the Lord's Prayer will be used. We will discuss the version of the week at Adult Forum in June and July.

Welcome Dakota

This weekend we welcome our new music director, Dakota Bennett. In addition to playing the organ and piano for worship, Dakota is interested in adding music which may be new to us. He will lead the adult choir, the bell choir, and with Kennedy Compton, he will lead the Choristers.

Saying the Psalm

Each numbered verse of a psalm has two parts, half verses, which are marked in the middle by an asterisk. When we are not singing or saying the psalm in unison, we say it antiphonally. The Reader announces the way we will say the psalm, either in unison, or responsively by whole or half verse. The Reader always begins the first verse. If we read by half verse, then the congregation says the portion of the verse following the asterisk. When reading by whole verse, the Reader says the first whole verse, and the congregation says the next whole verse. This provides a rhythmical back-and-forth between Reader and the People.

Further information

Antiphonal recitation is verse-by-verse alternation between singers or readers of the Psalter. The term ‘antiphonal’ is from the Greek, meaning “voice against voice.” This is the traditional monastic method of chanting psalms and dates back to the 6th C. Chant was reformed in the Church of England in the 16th C. Today, when we read the psalm between scripture readings, it is called a responsorial psalm.

THE RESPONSE

Ecce, quam bonum!

PSALM 133

Please remain seated. Spoken at all services.

The psalm may be spoken in unison, or responsively by whole or half verse.

- 1 Oh, how good and pleasant it is, *
when brethren live together in unity!
- 2 It is like fine oil upon the head *
that runs down upon the beard,
- 3 Upon the beard of Aaron, *
and runs down upon the collar of his robe.
- 4 It is like the dew of Hermon *
that falls upon the hills of Zion.
- 5 For there the Lord has ordained the blessing: *
life for evermore.

THE SECOND LESSON

ROMANS 11:1-2A, 29-32

Reader A reading from the letter to the Romans.

I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin. God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. Just as you were once disobedient to God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that he may be merciful to all.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

MATTHEW 15:10-28

Please remain standing as you are able.

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus called the crowd to him and said to them, “Listen and understand: it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles.” Then the disciples approached and said to him, “Do you know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard what you said?” He answered, “Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if one blind person guides another, both will fall into a pit.” But Peter said to him, “Explain this parable to us.” Then he said, “Are you also still without understanding? Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth enters the stomach, and goes out into the sewer? But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this is what defiles. For out of the heart come evil intentions, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander. These are what defile a person, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile.” Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon. Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon.” But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, “Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us.” He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” But she came and knelt before him, saying, “Lord, help me.” He answered, “It is not fair to take the children’s food and throw it to the dogs.” She said, “Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.” Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And her daughter was healed instantly.

THE SERMON

PAUL LEEKER, WORSHIP LEADER

Please be seated. At the conclusion of the sermon a moment of silent reflection is observed.

About the Gospels

The English word ‘gospel’ comes from the Anglo-Saxon godspel, or good news, translated from the Greek euangelion. In Christian usage, it means the good news of God’s saving act in Jesus Christ. The term ‘gospel’ came to designate a literary genre which told the story of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The New Testament contains four gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John.

Gospel in Liturgy

In the Episcopal liturgy, the gospel is the final reading from Holy Scripture at the Eucharist. It is proclaimed by a gospeler in holy orders. The 2nd Council of Nicaea in 787 decreed that icons, crosses, and gospel books could be venerated as sacred images, just as the incarnate Christ is the image of the invisible God. Today, many still choose to venerate the gospel book by bowing in reverence as it comes near.

The Nicene Creed

After the sermon, on most weekends (at primary worship services of the parish) we rise and say the Nicene Creed, an ancient confession of the church's beliefs. The Creed is a sign of our unity with Christians throughout all times and places. Though originally composed at an ancient time, it expresses key insights into the nature of God and creation. You may like to know that this version follows the Greek original precisely by saying "was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary," to emphasize that Mary was an active participant in the Incarnation. It also follows the Greek and Latin (and our English of Rite I) by using "who" rather than "he" in the section about the Holy Spirit. The words "and the Son," were not a part of the original Greek text and have been removed. They were added in some later Latin translations. The Episcopal Church, at General Convention of 1988, placed itself on record as favoring their omission, a decision later approved by Lambeth Conference.

THE NICENE CREED

BCP 358

All

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Peace

This is a liturgical exchange of greeting and is a sign of reconciliation, love, and renewed relationships in the Christian community. Initiated by the Presider, who says, “The peace of Christ be always with you,” the people respond, “And also with you.” The gesture of Peace has been expressed in a variety of ways, including a kiss on the cheek, an embrace, a handclasp, or a bow. This is an ancient Christian practice. It has been associated with Romans 16:16, “Greet one another with a holy kiss,” and similar passages.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now Christ's work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

All Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

As compiled by Adult Forum at St. James Church.

Please remain standing as you are able.

Presider As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Eternal Spirit, source of all that is and that shall be. Loving God, in whom is heaven, may your true nature be honored everywhere. We pray for your reign of peace to come. We pray that your good will be done. Let heaven and earth become one. Provide us today with the things that you think we need, and may we not take for granted that which you have already provided for us. Forgive us when we don't live as you intend, and may we be ready to forgive others when they don't live as you intend. Let forgiveness flow like a river between us, from each one to each one. In times of temptation and test, strengthen us; from trials too great to endure, spare us; from the grip of that is evil, free us. Above all, your will be done. Give us the perseverance and the oneness to look for love, truth, beauty and goodness, even if the path has not yet been traveled, and even if we fail, so we shall know your kingdom which is being built forever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

Please remain standing. Spoken at all services.

Presider Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

This Compilation

This summer our congregation said different versions of the Lord's Prayer each week. At Adult Forum each Sunday, we discussed them. After hearing the various versions, we found that our conversations refreshed and renewed our understanding of and appreciation for the Lord's Prayer directly from the gospels. The Lord's Prayer we use today is a compilation created by Adult Forum. This version gathers the phrases and images we found most meaningful in the many versions we read. Through September 3, we will enjoy the fruits of the Adult Forum's contemplation by using in worship the version they compiled.

Eucharist

The sacrament of the Eucharist is the principal act of Christian worship in our church. The term is from the Greek, "thanksgiving." Jesus instituted the Eucharist at the Last Supper where he shared bread and wine at a sacred meal with his disciples. Christ's sacrifice is made present in the Eucharist, and in it we are united to his one self-offering. The grace bestowed in Holy Communion augments (deepens, increases) faith, forgives sin, and strengthens of our charity. Everyone who seeks a deeper knowledge of Christ is welcome to receive the sacrament.

Real Presence

The Episcopal Church teaches the real presence of Christ in the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Our Catechism notes that the inward and spiritual grace in the eucharist is “the Body and Blood of Christ given to his people and received by faith.” Belief in the real presence does not imply a claim to know how Christ is present in the eucharistic elements nor does it imply that the consecrated eucharistic elements cease to be bread and wine. Christ’s presence is made known in the gathered eucharistic community.

Going Deeper in Presence

The eucharistic theology of the real presence called transubstantiation is belief that the substance of Christ’s body and blood replaces the substance of the bread and wine, although the appearance of the bread and wine are unchanged. This is regarded as definitive in the Roman Catholic tradition. Anglicans (therefore, Episcopalians) believe in a balance of both an objective change of some kind in the eucharistic elements to become the body and blood of Christ, and the subjective faith of the believer who receives the sacrament.

Communion in One Kind

Our doctrine upholds the truth that the fullness of communion is available by receiving either the consecrated bread or wine. Communicants receive both the body and the blood in either the consecrated bread or the wine, though all are invited (as they are able) to receive both kinds. Our belief in the fullness of communion in one kind (bread or wine) is called the doctrine of concomitance. The term concomitance comes from the Latin, “to accompany.”

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Season's articles due this Sunday, August 20. It's time to start thinking about the start-up of the program year, which means it's also time to submit your article for the Fall edition of the Seasons Newsletter.

Join us on Sunday, August 20 after the 10:45 am service to discuss the 2024 Old English Tea. A lot of progress has been made in the planning, but there is still plenty to do! We would love to have as many people attend the meeting as possible.

Interested in the Episcopal Church?

Basic A, our course introducing the Episcopal Church, begins this Tuesday. People at any point on a faith journey are welcome in this group. Adults, and their guests, are invited to take part on Tuesday at 6:00 pm Aug. 22 - Sept. 26. Each session is about 90 minutes long. This course can lead to confirmation in the Episcopal Church. Confirmation is Sunday morning, October 1. Sign up for Basic A on our website, www.stjameswichita.org, or by calling the church office.

We are collecting water bottles for Breakthrough/ESS again! Please bring your bundles of water bottles - any size - and leave them in the entryway at St. James.

Are you interested in helping lead services when the priest is away? On Sunday, August 27 after the 10:45 am service, we are training members to lead COMAP (communion in the absence of a priest) services! This is a wonderful way to serve the church, ensuring that we can still share in communion together while our priest is taking much needed time off. Requirements: You must be trained as a lector and chalice bearer.

No Outreach Committee Meeting in August. We will resume our regular meetings in September. Join us to hear a speaker and make fall plans on Tuesday, Sept 26 at 4:00 p.m. in the lounge. All are welcome.

Our pantry for Paxton's Blessing Box continues to need donations as the need in Wichita is on the rise. Consider dropping off non-perishable food and hygiene products by the front door. You can also write a check to the church with the memo line: Paxton's Blessing Box. Thank you so much for your donations! If you have questions, contact Chelsea.

WHOEVER YOU ARE AND WHEREVER YOU FIND YOURSELF ON YOUR JOURNEY OF FAITH,
YOU ARE WELCOME HERE.

You will hear these words every week at St. James as we invite you to join us for the Word and Sacraments that are God's gifts to all. It does not matter who you are, what you look like, what you have done in the past, or who you love. God's grace is not petty; it is not earned. It is radical and universal. We at St. James seek to mirror God's healing love by making this community a safe place for skeptics, doubters, seekers, those who have been wounded by the church, those who have never darkened its doors, those who have wandered, as well as new believers and those who have never left. As a diverse community we have discovered in God a oneness greater than our differences. We have come to know that our variety reflects the divine comprehensiveness of God. Engaging God is a lifelong process. Wherever you find yourself on your journey of faith, we believe God invites you to keep traveling. In some subtle or profound way, the Spirit of God drew you here. Our hearts are open to God and to you.
